COURSE ON INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX COMPLIANCE

With this training, you will stay up to date with the application of laws and regulations on individual income tax compliance for non-entrepreneurial clients. Our experienced trainer will cover topics such as the correlation between wage tax and income tax, tax subject, tax object, taxable income, deductible expenses, rates and social premiums. Practical examples and case studies are used throughout the training. The format of this course is interactive. By the end of this training, you will have gained valuable fiscal legal knowledge that can help you with the proper individual income tax compliance of your clients.

This training is designed for professionals who are involved in individual income tax compliance and want to enhance their knowledge. In this highly practical training, you will apply relevant laws and regulations in your organization's tax compliance department. Theory will be alternated with practice as you work intensively on real-world cases and assignments. The training is conducted in small groups to ensure personalized attention from your trainer.
